Introducing the NJYS Respect Campaign

NJ Youth Soccer has officially launched the NJYS Respect Campaign, designed to improve the local soccer community and the experiences of all involved, both on and off the field.

Purpose of the Respect Campaign

The attitudes and behaviors of young people are shaped by those around them—teammates and opponents, parents, referees, coaches, and it is important to surround them with positive influences on and off the field. That means promoting respectful behavior between players and administrators.

Youth sports are as much about learning life lessons as they are learning the sport on the field. All of us at NJ Youth Soccer want to encourage everyone to work together to ensure our players are learning and implementing inclusion, acceptance, unity and respect in our soccer community.

This is not a temporary campaign but an ongoing commitment to improve behavior in New Jersey Youth Soccer. We thank you in advance for helping us create a more positive, inclusive and respectful environment for the game we all love.

How to Get Involved

Recognize and acknowledge an act of respect by a player, coach, parent, referee or administrator. If you observe someone taking the extra step to promote a more respectful atmosphere around youth soccer, we encourage you to nominate them as an NJYS Respect Ambassador by filling out the form at the link below.

NJ Youth Soccer will review nominations and recognize one (1) nominee each month as the NJYS Respect Campaign winner. The recipient will receive an award courtesy of various NJYS partners (e.g. New York Red Bulls, Gotham FC and Philadelphia Union). The recipient will also be recognized via NJYS digital communications (e.g. website, social media and monthly newsletters).

To further advance respect in the game, we also encourage members to post a picture on social media that portrays and describes the observed respectful act. Make sure to use the hashtag #NJYSRespect and tag @NJYouthSoccer on the post so they can be recognized by our state association.

To find out more about the NJYS Respect Campaign, please email austin@njyouthsoccer.com. Also make sure to follow us on social media: @NJYouthSoccer

Ocean Township United SA U11G Surge Red Honored as NJYS Respect

New Jersey Youth Soccer is proud to announce that Ocean Township SA U11G Surge Red has been selected as the NJYS Respect Campaign Ambassadors for April 2022. Members of the team include Mia Aquino, Skyler Chase, Kerry Farrell, Quinn Khichi, Claire Laffey, Lily Papp, Everly Perna, Emma Pisciotto, Ella Pugielli, Jordan Rose, Abby Salowe, Riley Savare and Giuliana Vitale.

The girls were selected because of their dedication to helping others and making a difference in their community through soccer. After hearing about a request by Red Cross for the donation of soccer equipment for refugees residing at Joint Base McGuire, Dix Lakehurst, the team decided to take action. Pulling money from birthdays and allowances, the girls were able to purchase two dozen balls that were donated to the refugees. "Our girls hope the soccer balls give 24 young refugees in an uncertain situation a reason to smile," said Megan Khichi, a parent on the team. "It's a tangible way for these third and fourth graders to make a difference and help cheer up kids in need."

The balls were donated to Dogtopia in Tinton Falls, one of the drop-off locations for the Joint Base/Afghan refugees organized by the NJ Veterans Chamber of Commerce through Red Cross.

U11 Surge Red are the first to be named Respect Ambassadors through the NJYS Respect Campaign, which launched in April. The Respect Campaign, which was recently featured by NBC New York, is designed to improve the local soccer community and the experiences of all involved, both on and off the field.

To get involved with the NJYS Respect Campaign, all members of the NJYS community are urged to recognize and acknowledge acts of respect by players, coaches, parents, referees and administrators. If you observe someone taking the extra step to promote a more respectful atmosphere in youth soccer, we encourage you to nominate them as a NJYS Respect Ambassador by filling out this link: CLICK HERE

To further promote respect in the game, NJ Youth Soccer also encourages the soccer community to post a picture on social media that portrays and describes the observed respectful act. Make sure to use the hashtag #NJYSRespect and tag @NJYouthSoccer on the post so they can be recognized by our state association.

The goal of the NJYS Respect Campaign is to improve the soccer culture as well as decrease the frequency of required disciplinary measures and reports of abuse from competition in member leagues. This is not a temporary campaign but an ongoing commitment to improve behavior in NJ Youth Soccer.
